DA Sunday Announces the Retirement of Chief County Detective Art Smith

York, PA – Art Smith has served as the Chief County Detective for four years, and prior to that, he served as the West Manchester Township Chief of Police for over 16 years. DA Sunday said, “I am eternally grateful for Art’s leadership and guidance on all law enforcement matters over my first four years. The bureau’s positive transformation and growth are a credit to his 40+ years of experience, and I will miss him dearly.”

With Chief Smith’s upcoming retirement, DA Sunday is pleased to announce the promotion of Lieutenant Scott James to Chief County Detective. Lieutenant James worked for the Springettsbury Township Police Department from 1999-2001, and the Office of the Inspector General from 2001-2002. Since 2002, Lieutenant James has been employed by the Office of the District Attorney, and has been a cornerstone of the Detective Bureau and the York County Forensic Team.

“York County is blessed to have such hardworking, dedicated County Detectives and I cannot think of a better person to lead them as I begin my second term as your elected District Attorney,” said Sunday.
